Dear Mr Culleton,

Freedom of Information Request FOI21/164 – Decision letter

The purpose of this letter is to give you a decision about your request for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) which you submitted to the Attorney-General's Department (the department).

Your request

On 2 September 2021, you wrote to the department to request access to information regarding the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia & Termination.

On 6 September 2021, you were advised your correspondence had been provided to relevant officers for consideration.

On 15 September 2021, an officer of the department's Freedom of Information and Privacy Section acknowledged your request to be for:

1. In light of the letter of Mr David Lewis, dated 16 August 2021, in response to my request for information, dated 22 July 2021, and my references above, regarding the authority to terminate the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia, I request the instrument that overrides, suspends or terminates the "indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown of the United Kingdom..." as qualified by the second clause that binds the Crown and the fifth clause that binds the people, that ought to have been in place at the time of 1973 in making the change of authority to the Australian Government.
2. With reference to termination of the Commonwealth, by substitution of the jurisdiction taken to be solely under the authority of the Australian Government without the Crown, I request the acknowledgement of the Australian people, via the alteration by process of section 128, or otherwise for termination of the Commonwealth and substitution in current practice today.
3. With reference to termination of the Commonwealth, I request the publication of sufficient notice to the Australian people of that change, in light of the current text of the Constitution and prefacing clauses and in light of the celebration of the centenary of the Commonwealth held in 2001.

A decision in relation to your request is due on 5 October 2021.

My decision

I am an officer authorised under section 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to freedom of information requests made to the department.

In making my decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the terms of your request,
- advice provided to me by officers with responsibility for matters to which your request relates,
- the provisions of the FOI Act, and
- the Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (the Guidelines).

Section 24A of the FOI Act relevantly provides that an agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document and the agency is satisfied that the document:

- is in the agency's possession but cannot be found, or
- does not exist.

When considering a decision to refuse access under section 24A of the FOI Act, the Guidelines relevantly provide at paragraph 3.89 that an agency or minister should take comprehensive steps to locate documents, having regard to:

- the subject matter of the documents,
- the current and past file management systems and the practice of destruction or removal of documents,
- the record management systems in place,
- the individuals within an agency or minister's office who may be able to assist with the location of documents, and
- the age of the documents.

To identify documents for your request, I arranged for staff likely to be able to identify documents to undertake comprehensive searches of the relevant departmental electronic holdings. In particular, a departmental staff member with responsibility for processing FOI requests interrogated the department's record management system using search terms which were developed with reference to the information provided in the scope of your request. Despite these efforts, no relevant documents were identified.

Having regard to the above, I am satisfied that reasonable steps to locate the documents to which you have sought access were undertaken. I am also satisfied that the documents do not exist within the department's records holdings. I have therefore decided to refuse access pursuant to section 24A of the FOI Act.

Additional information

Your review rights under the FOI Act are set out at Attachment A to this letter.

Attachment A - FOI Review rights

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Attorney-General's Department (the department), you may apply for internal review or Information Commissioner review of the decision.

The department encourages applicants to consider seeking internal review as a first step as it may provide a more rapid resolution of your concerns.

Internal review

Under section 54 of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), applications for internal review must be made in writing within 30 days of the date of the decision letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:

email: foi@ag.gov.au

post: Freedom of Information and Privacy Section
Strategy and Governance Branch
Attorney-General's Department
3-5 National Circuit BARTON ACT 2600

An officer of the department other than the officer who made the original decision will complete the internal review within 30 days of receipt of your request.

Providing reasons you believe internal review of the decision is necessary will facilitate the completion of the internal review.

Information Commissioner review

Under section 54L of the FOI Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review my decision. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of the decision letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:
