Western Australian Current Acts

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE ACT 2004 - SCHEDULE 1

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE ACT 2004 - SCHEDULE 1

[s. 23, 85]

Division 1 – Preliminary

1. Terms used

In this Schedule, unless the contrary intention appears – receiving means the offence under The Criminal Code section 414; stealing means the offence under The Criminal Code section 378.

Division 2 – Contents of prosecution notices and indictments

2. General rules

- (1) A prosecution notice or indictment must not allege both an indictable offence and a simple offence.
- (2) A prosecution notice or indictment must relate to one accused only, unless clause 7 or another written law permits otherwise.
- (3) A prosecution notice or indictment must contain one charge only, unless clause 7 or another written law permits otherwise.
- (4) A charge must allege one offence only, unless clause 8 or another written law permits otherwise.
- (5) If a prosecution notice or indictment contains more than one charge, each charge must be in a separate and consecutively numbered paragraph.
- (6) An indictment must list the witnesses who the prosecutor intends to summons to give evidence in any trial of the indictment.

3. Prosecutor to be identified

(1) A prosecution notice must identify the prosecutor.

(2) For the purposes of subclause (1) it is sufficient for a prosecution notice —

(a) if a prosecution is being commenced by a police officer, to name the “WA Police” as the prosecutor;

(b) if a prosecution is being commenced by a person who is acting in the course of his or her duties as a public authority or as an employee of a public authority, or who is authorised by a public authority to commence the prosecution, to name the public authority as the prosecutor, if the prosecution notice identifies the individual who issues the notice and is signed in accordance with section 23.

(3) An indictment must be commenced in the name of the State of Western Australia.

[Clause 3 amended: No. 34 of 2020 s. 88.]

4. Accused to be identified

(1) A prosecution notice or indictment must identify the accused —

(a) if the accused is an individual, by means of the accused’s full name and, if known, date of birth and usual place of residence;

(b) if the accused is a corporation, by means of its name and, if it has one, the ACN given to it under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

(2) If the circumstances so require, an accused who is an individual may be identified, additionally or alternatively to the requirements of subclause (1)(a), by one or more of the following —

(a) a photograph of the accused, attached to the prosecution notice or indictment;
